

Offertory, Roof Appeal, Easter offering

The costs of running the parish will unfortunately continue throughout this crisis; the church, halls and house will still have to be maintained, the gas, electric, water, telephone and insurance bills paid, food and household items bought, etc. The Roof appeal remains ongoing, and we should not forget that the clergy have very little income apart from the Christmas & Easter offerings which we would normally be giving soon. We should therefore be most grateful if parishioners would continue giving to the collections via online Standing Orders and/or one-off bank transfers to St Anselm's Church:
